The selection of a Democratic candidate to succeed the late Judge Ikeler in the Montour-Columbia district has caused a muddled situation. Mr. Little was named by Columbia county, and Grant Herring, respective. bia county, and Grant Herring, recently appointed by Governor Hastings, was undersed by Montour county conferrees. Now Little's conferrees refuse to meet them. The Repulsbeans of Montour county have endorsed James Scarlet as their judicial candidate, but the Colombia county Republicans favor C. C. Evans, of Rerwick. The Prohibition ists of both counties having selected C. L. ists of both counties having selected the Lawley, of Scrauton.
